Field Trip – Wichita Wildlife Refuge

If you weren't able to come out the field trip we had in June, you missed a good time and lots of wildflowers. So, look for the next field trip and come out and have some fun and photography. Field trips are an excellent way to meet new people, learn tips and tricks from other photographers, and get great photos that can be entered in competition. The next field trip will be listed here in the newsletter, on the website, announced at the meetings, and sent out in email, so you keep your eyes and ears peeled for it.
